Wine

WHITE

Sauvignon Blanc 12

The Federalist, New Zealand

Grapefruit, passionfruit, super bright, mineral finish.

Chardonnay 15

Maison Joseph Drouhin, Burgundy

Yellow apple, citrus-forward, with a clean finish.

Chenin Blanc 15

Beaumont, Western Cape, South Africa

Crisp dry stone fruit, zesty lime, salt, and minerality.

Arneis 11

Tenuta Fratelli Povero, Piedmont, Italy

White peach and apricot on the nose, nutty middle. (We have one of those too.) Close to a pinot grigio.

ROSÉ (ON TAP)

Grenache/Syrah Blend 12

Chateau de Campuget, Southern Rhône, France

The perfect rosé: strawberry, peach, minerality, acidic finish.

RED

Pinot Noir 12

Cline, North Coast, California

Wild strawberry, cherry, pine, dirt, and cinnamon. Silky.

Malbec 12

Catena Vista Flores, Uco Valley, Mendoza, Argentina

Ripe blackberry, sweet spice, mocha, and a little bit of leather (to keep things interesting). Bright acidity and a long finish.

Cabernet Sauvignon 14

Ancient Peaks Winery, Paso Robles, Central Coast, California

Plum, cassis, graphite. Check out the winery – they're cool.

Barbera 15

Vietti Barbera d'Asti Tre Vigne, Piedmont, Italy

We've watched this wine make non-red-drinkers reconsider. Cherry, blackberry, and a hint of vanilla on the nose.

Grenache Syrah Mourvedre 12 (chilled)

Souleil Vin de Bonté, Languedoc, France

GSM is a blend of grapes usually used in rosé. Here they left the skins on, so it's more interesting.

SPARKLING

Prosecco 10

Villa Sandi, Vineto, Italy

Make it a mimosa! +2

Clean and dry, green apple and wisteria. Can't go wrong.

Pet Nat Riesling 14

Max Dexheimer, Rheinhessen, Germany

For those who like the funkier things in life. Small bubbles, a little weird, but in a yummy way.
